Television in the U.S. has hit an all time low this year with MTV airing an adaptation of the British series "Skins," seen by 3.3million viewers, 1.2 million of them under 18, the night of its first show. In the trailers for this series, 15- to 18-year-old actors portray teens engaging in explicit drug use, sex, underage drinking, homosexual behavior and rebellion-all in 45 seconds! The producers defended the series by stating, "It addresses real world issues confronting teens in a frank way." While the media seeks to destroy the innocence and expose the vulnerability of our youth, God desires to cover, to protect and guard our teens from all manner of evil.

Before our "adopted" student was born, Psalm 139 tells us that God labored in the awesome work of knitting together his inner organs and personality, all the while covering and protecting the little one until life could be sustained outside the mother's womb. The work was sacred work as the child was to bear the image of God as he walked through the life ordained by his Creator. The flaw of "Adam's race," i.e. the natural propensity for rebellion against God, and the evil forces of Satan's ranks have led to the seemingly hopeless state of our teens, depicted in the shows like "Skins" and "Jersey Shore."

As a friend of God and a member of the royal priesthood, you and I hold the Hand that holds the destinies of the particular student(s) we have adopted. What the dark prince of this world intended for evil in releasing this most recent TV series, God can use for good to drive us to our prayer closets saying, "Enough!" "God, put some clothes on these kids!" Plead with God's Holy Spirit to move in your student's life to put off the "old man with its malice, anger, passions, fornication, filthy language...and put on the "new man" who is renewed in knowledge according to the image of the one who created him." Col. 3

The real issue confronting teens, whether they know it or not, is "Whose image will you bear?" Will they continue groping in the darkness, exposed to every physical passion and craving, or will they bow before their Savior and Lord, as we did, saying, "Be merciful to me a sinner...Save me O Lord" and "I will greatly rejoice in the Lord; my soul shall exalt in my God, for He has clothed me with the garments of salvation, He has covered me with the robe of righteousness..." (Is 61:10)

Let the Word of God dwell in you as you fervently pray !

Wall of Prayer

"Lord, there is no one besides Thee to help in the battle between the powerful and those who have no strength; so help us, O Lord our God, for we trust in Thee, and in Thy name have come against this multitude. O Lord, Thou art our God; let not man prevail against Thee."

2 Chronicles 14:11
