May 1 – July 31, 2015

God designed our world with beauty, order, and fellowship in mind. He created man to be the leader – strong, loving and protective and from this man He fashioned his delicate, reverent wife. She would bring sweetness, beauty and comfort to his life as together they would portray the image of God. In His image He created them male and female. From this sacred life-long union, God would give the gift, yea the reward, of children. These individuals were to be God's delight and together would cultivate order, beauty, and progress in their world. The family would be the key to a peaceful and meaningful society.

Compassion would be woven into the fibers of the offspring as their gentle mother respected their father and tenderly cared for them. Security, integrity, and responsibility were to be developed as the father cherished their mother and exhorted and encouraged them to live in the discipline of the Lord, according to His plan.

Then the evil enemy brought deception, chaos, and tragic death to this perfect picture. Fellowship with God was severed and the goodness of His original plan was forfeited. Made in the image of God, man continues to search for the love and significance now missing in his life. Power, pleasure and greed are attempts to mask the resulting insecurity and despair.

But God patiently persevered in His unfailing love as He gave the law, the prophets and finally His very Son to restore the severed relationship. Jesus bore our grief and carried our sorrows. He was pierced for our transgressions and crushed for our iniquities. The chastening of our well-being fell on Him and by His wounds, we were healed. As a result of the anguish of His soul, God saw it and was satisfied. Of His fullness we have received grace upon grace. As many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, to those who believed His name who were born again, not of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

How can we as children of God, rescued from the curse of death and free to live in new life, fail to plead with our heavenly Father daily on behalf of our desperate teens in the confidence of His living word and by the power of His Holy Spirit? No one can come to Jesus unless it is granted him from the Father. No one can be forgiven unless God has granted him a godly sorrow that produces a repentance that leads to salvation. We must pray fervently that God would mercifully pour His Holy Spirit on our teens. Pray that even as the Emmaus road account goes, their hearts would burn as He speaks to them...as He opens their minds to understand the scriptures, and that they would ask Him to stay! Jesus is the way the truth and the life. We must pray for them to meet Jesus – God will surely to orchestrate all the details.

Wall of Prayer

“Lord, there is no one besides Thee to help in the battle between the powerful and those who have no strength; so help us, O Lord our God, for we trust in Thee, and in Thy name have come against this multitude. O Lord, Thou art our God; let not man prevail against Thee.”
2 Chronicles 14:11
