Spring, Valentine's Day, Easter, Prom

In 2008, our son, along with other students from the University of Texas, rode his bicycle from Austin, Texas, to Anchorage, Alaska, to benefit cancer research. Each of the thirty members of the Texas 4000 team raised $1.00 for each of the 4500 miles they traveled and logged 1000miles on their bikes in preparation. Many of the participants kept a journal of this experience which can be read on the Texas 4000 website. After one three-day trip a student told of riding 100 miles, being pelted with stinging sand as a whirlwind blew up and then getting caught in a downpour of rain as they loaded the bikes quickly into a trailer. He wrote, "when I began the trip, I considered these people my teammates; now, they are my friends." This intense experience of sharing joys and trials brought a kindered spirit which will last for some time.

The road traveled through the teen years can be one storm after another. Friendships are formed in these times that leave lasting impressions. Many decisions are influenced by friends and peers. Jesus, who created them for His purposes, wants to be their Friend. He wants those teens who are believers to be His friend and to love those around them like He loves them. Stephen was one who loved those around him more than he loved himself. In Acts 6 we read of Stephen's wisdom and faith as he served the Greek widows each day. Later, though falsely accused, he continued to love and speak the truth of God's love and Jesus' death and resurrection for the salvation of those who would ultimately stone him. And who did Stephen look to as those he loved stoned him? JESUS...who STOOD at His Father's right hand. Jesus stood up for His friend who had followed him even to the death. And who was watching as this took place? A young man named Saul saw Stephen's faithfulness (a seed planted) and later Saul, too, would come face to face with the One who will always be there for His friends.

As we pray specifically on Fridays for our teens' friendships, pray that believing students will cling to Jesus as their best Friend. That His Holy Spirit will draw them to Himself through His word and that the joy they receive from spending time with Him will spill over to those around them. Pray that they will be consistent in their godly behavior so that unbelievers will see His light in them. God will make divine introductions if we ask Him. Ask that He would use the storms of life to platform His strength and presence in the lives of believers; that watching students would search for that strength and presence and find JESUS, their best friend forever!

Prayer Guide

In this prayer guide you will find a scripture that we will be using in our prayers for our children each day. The major theme for each day is given below.

Sunday – Fear of God

That they will fear the Lord and see His character

Monday – Salvation

That they would know and love Christ as their Savior

Tuesday – Wisdom

That God would give them a heart of wisdom and that they would put on righteousness and know right from wrong

Wednesday – Hatred of Sin

That they would be protected from the evil one. That they would hate sin and be caught when they do sin

Thursday – Submission

That they would respect and submit to the authority over them, and find joy in obedience

Friday – Friends

That they would desire the right friends and be protected from the wrong friends and crowd

Saturday – Mate & Purity

That they and their future mate will be kept pure for marriage

Wall of Prayer

"Lord, there is no one besides Thee to help in the battle between the powerful and those who have no strength; so help us, O Lord our God, for we trust in Thee, and in Thy name have come against this multitude. O Lord, Thou art our God; let not man prevail against Thee."

2 Chronicles 14:11
