Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Years

We have some very brave and courageous parents, teachers, counselors, coaches, and youth leaders being used of God to shepherd our teens in the paths of righteousness. Many have prayed daily for their students by name. Teachers have sought creative ways to teach truth, counselors have counseled from the premise that there is right and wrong and that it doesn't vary with each circumstance. We have seen coaches "bench" star athletes for bad attitudes or wrong behavior. As Paul writes to the Colossians, "we must devote ourselves to prayer on their behalf." Like Paul, their tongues are imprisoned, shackled in our schools from speaking the truth of God's sovereignty and creation and of man's dignity and worth-being made in the image of God and purchased by the shed blood of His Son. We must pray that "God will open a door to them so that they may speak the truth of Christ." That God would make it clear in the way they ought to speak; and, that they would conduct themselves with wisdom, making the most of every opportunity. (Colossians 4)

James tells us that wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, full of mercy and good fruits, unwavering without hypocrisy. We'll pray that these shepherds would have a passion for the subject they are teaching and a love for the students they teach. Pray that the students would have ears to hear truth in every subject. That in math they would learn of God's order; in science they would learn of God's genius and creativity; in the arts, His majesty; and, in history, His sovereign hand over time.

While we have seen pockets of sweet truth and godly wisdom open up in our schools, there remain many "thieves" and "robbers" (John 10) among our precious "lambs." The Greek word for thief conveys the idea of secretly stealing by fraud. The politically correct teaching of subjects such as "gender sensitivity," defraud kids of truth. The Greek word for robber means to deprive another openly and by violence. We are appalled by those who secretly seduce and rape our teens; those who are disguised as their shepherds. Pray that satan's plan to rob our teens of their innocence and their emotional and physical health would be frustrated. Pray that the impossible will become possible. That the students for whom we pray will soon hear the voice of the Good Shepherd and follow Him to green and safe pastures. Thank you, thank you for your many prayers; and we thank our Lord for working through your prayers in the lives of our teens. Never give up!

Prayer Guide

In this prayer guide you will find a scripture that we will be using in our prayers for our students each day. The major theme for each day is given below.

Sunday – Fear of God

That they will fear the Lord and see His character

Monday – Salvation

That they would know and love Christ as their Savior

Tuesday – Wisdom

That God would give them a heart of wisdom and that they would put on righteousness and know right from wrong

Wednesday – Hatred of Sin

That they would be protected from the evil one. That they would hate sin and be caught when they do sin

Thursday – Submission

That they would respect and submit to the authority over them, and find joy in obedience

Friday – Friends

That they would desire the right friends and be protected from the wrong friends and crowd

Saturday – Mate & Purity

That they and their future mate will be kept pure for marriage

Thank you for your dedication to daily bringing your child and your prayer partner before the Lord in prayer. If you are unable to fulfill this responsibility, or have other questions or comments, please contact us at:

Wall of Prayer

"Lord, there is no one besides Thee to help in the battle between the powerful and those who have no strength; so help us, O Lord our God, for we trust in Thee, and in Thy name have come against this multitude. O Lord, Thou art our God; let not man prevail against Thee."

2 Chronicles 14:11
