We must not lose faith like the Israelites did when they listened to the ten spies who feared the giants rather than listening to Joshua and Caleb who trusted God.¹ When these two saw the Promised Land filled with milk and honey where a single cluster of grapes had to be carried on a pole between two men they said, "Let us go up now, for we are able to overcome it." And while the disobedient, unbelieving 10 cried, "the land devours its inhabitants," God's men pleaded, "...the Lord is with us, do not fear them." God grieved, "How long will this people despise me, in spite of all the signs that I have done among them." (Numbers 14:11) We know that without faith it is impossible to please Him, but here, God defines lack of faith as actually despising Him. In the end, Joshua and Caleb were the only two left to see God destroy the giants and clear the way through that Promised Land of abundance and rest.

We may look around today and truthfully say, "The land devours its people." Violence, bullying, substance abuse, sexual promiscuity, gender confusion, trafficking and predators are just a few of the giants that loom as tall as these Canaanite giants among our teens. In our human strength, we are as helpless as the Israelites who saw themselves as "grasshoppers" next to their foe. But, God is bigger than giants.

We must not lose our confidence! In Jeremiah 32:26 God reminds us, "I am the God of all flesh, is anything too difficult for me?" GOD is able to do the impossible! Goliath of Gath who we meet later in Israel's history, is recorded as standing anywhere from 9½ feet to 11½ feet tall. (1 Samuel 16-17) To Goliath's taunting and mocking David replied, "You come to me with a sword and with a spear and with a javelin, but I come to you in the name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel whom you have defied." Daily in our prayer closets as the prince of this world mocks God in attempt to weaken our faith with fear and doubt, we must in full confidence plead with God our Father to defeat the giants in our adopted students' lives. Let us please Him with our faith in His mighty power to save and transform those we obediently bring to Him in fervent prayer. Mighty prayer warriors, thank you for your years of service. Press on!

Prayer Guide

In this prayer guide you will find a scripture that we will be using in our prayers for our children each day. The major theme for each day is given below.

Sunday – Fear of God

That they will fear the Lord and see His character

Monday – Salvation

That they would know and love Christ as their Lord and Savior

Tuesday – Wisdom

That God would give them a heart of wisdom and that they would put on righteousness and know right from wrong

Wednesday – Hatred of Sin

That they would be protected from the evil one. That they would hate sin and be caught when they do sin

Thursday – Submission

That they would respect and submit to the authority over them, and find joy in obedience

Friday – Friends

That they would desire the right friends and be protected from the wrong friends and crowd

Saturday – Mate & Purity

That they and their future mate will be kept pure for marriage

Thank you for your dedication to daily bringing your child and your prayer partner before the Lord in prayer. If you are unable to fulfill this responsibility, or have other questions or comments, please contact us at:

Wall of Prayer

"Lord, there is no one besides Thee to help in the battle between the powerful and those who have no strength; so help us, O Lord our God, for we trust in Thee, and in Thy name have come against this multitude. O Lord, Thou art our God; let not man prevail against Thee."

2 Chronicles 14:11
